THE FOUNDERS

Robert Eugene McKee, Sr.

MCKEE, ROBERT EUGENE, SR. (1889–1964). Robert Eugene (Gene) McKee, contractor, was born in Lake View (Chicago), Illinois, on June 15, 1889, the youngest son of James David and Alice Elizabeth (Cleve) McKee. His family moved when he was very young to St. Louis, Missouri, where he attended the Manual Training School of Washington University. He left St. Louis as a young man to live on his Uncle "Bud" Cleve's ranch at Elk, New Mexico. After a short stay he moved to El Paso, Texas, in 1910 and began his career in the engineering and construction field. He married Gladys Evelyn Woods on September 20, 1911. They had six sons and two daughters. After working as a draftsman and engineer for the El Paso Milling Company and the engineering department of the city of El Paso, McKee began his own construction company in 1913 and soon became one of America's most important contractors. By 1935 he had built the naval docks and the Marine Hospital at the naval base in San Diego. In Hawaii he built various military facilities, including the power plant at Pearl Harbor and the Air Corps Double Hangars and a 3,200-man barracks at Hickam Field. He was also constructing officers' quarters, warehouses, air corps machine shops, and an engine-test facility at Hickam Field. All were substantially complete when the Japanese bombed Pearl Harbor. During World War II McKee built the largest military center in Texas, Camp Bowie, near Brownwood, in a record time of ten months. He constructed large military installations in the Panama Canal Zone and in the Territory of Hawaii. During one year he had 42,000 workers on his payroll. He was chosen to be responsible for building the facilities for the Los Alamos Atomic Energy Project in New Mexico. Maj. Gen. Leslie R. Groves, officer in charge of the atomic project, awarded McKee the Army-Navy "E" for high achievement in October 1945. In the 1950s McKee constructed the Cadet Quarters Complex, the Air Force Chapel, and several other large facilities at the United States Air Force Academy. In 1959 he was the major contractor for the new Los Angeles International Airport. While building a variety of major projects in thirty-five of the fifty states, he kept his headquarters and home in El Paso, with branch offices in Dallas, Santa Fe, Los Angeles, Honolulu, and the Panama Canal Zone.

McKee's company built a large percentage of El Paso's major structures, including offices, hospitals, banks, schools, churches, military installations, and facilities at the University of Texas at El Paso. Two of his pet projects were the Austin High School stadium, named for him, and the Southwestern Children's Home. He was a liberal donor to many projects. His firm was the largest individually owned contracting firm in the World, when in 1950 he incorporated his construction operations. His growth and success were directly related to his philosophy of giving his personal attention to detail, his high regard for employees as individuals, and a demand for work of the highest quality.

The Southwest was always of great interest to McKee, who collected arts and crafts of Southwestern Indian tribes from Taos, Santa Fe, and other art colonies. He became acquainted with many of the artists and their works. He and his wife visited them in their homes and corresponded with them regularly over the years. The McKees acquired an outstanding collection of Southwestern and Indian art, which was established as the McKee Collection of Paintings. The McKees helped develop the El Paso Museum of Art and through a friendship with Rush Kress became instrumental in the acquisition of part of the Samuel H. Kress Collection of paintings for permanent display in El Paso. McKee was appointed city alderman in El Paso in 1928. He was a vestryman at St. Clement's Episcopal Church, a thirty-second-degree Scottish Rite Mason, and active in El Maida Shrine. He was a board member of the El Paso Museum of Art and Southwestern Children's Home. He was appointed colonel and aide-de-camp to the governor of New Mexico in 1947. The city of El Paso honored him as a "conquistador" in 1960, and he was inducted into the El Paso County Historical Society's Hall of Honor in 1967. He was a champion of the underprivileged. In 1952 he established the Robert E. and Evelyn McKee Foundation, a nonprofit, charitable corporation for the continuation of his charitable goals within the United States. About 1961 McKee married a second time. He died on October 21, 1964, in El Paso, still active as chairman of the board of Robert E. McKee, General Contractor, Incorporated.

Gladys Evelyn Woods

THE FOUNDERS

Gladys Evelyn Woods McKee

Gladys Evelyn McKee, known by her family and friends as "Evie," was born Gladys Evelyn Woods on May 16, 1893, in the city of Quezaltenango, Guatemala.

Her father, employed as an electrical power plant operator until the plant was destroyed by a devastating earthquake, became the manager of a coffee plantation in the mountainous country high above the city. So began a hectic sequence of events, a revolution, volcanic eruptions, and more earthquakes which forced the family evacuation from the plantation high in the mountains. "Evie," her mother, sister and two brothers, escorted by pack mule, embarked on a two day trip to the sea coast to be loaded into small boats with their salvaged belongings. The small boats were rowed out to sea to meet a larger ship that took them to San Francisco, California.

One year after their arrival in San Francisco, Mother Woods, Evie, and the other children were among the many families devastated by the historical San Francisco earthquake and fire. The Woods family, like so many others, lost all of their worldly possessions and left San Francisco for Chihuahua, Mexico where they lived for a short time before coming to El Paso. There, Evie and Gene met at Mother Woods' boarding house and subsequently were married on September 20, 1911. Eight children were born of this marriage. They were survived by these eight children, twenty-seven grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

It goes without saying, Evelyn's main objective and purpose in life was the rearing of her children and concern for a strong family relationship. Large family celebrations at Christmas, Thanksgiving and Easter were the result of much planning and preparation usually starting before the holidays.

She was honored as "Mother of the Year" in 1942 and publicized as the perfect example of motherhood in 1957. She was a member of St. Clement's Episcopal Church and was a member of the Board of Trustees for the Y.W.C.A.

Gladys Evelyn McKee's concern for the less fortunate was ever present in her daily life and joined with her husband, Robert E. McKee, in his philanthropies. Gladys Evelyn McKee died on January 26, 1960, in El Paso, Texas, at the age of 67.

Foundation History

The Robert E. and Evelyn McKee Foundation was chartered in the State of Texas as a non-profit, charitable corporation in 1952 without capital stock.

The purpose of the Foundation is to use its funds exclusively within the United States for the benefit of charitable, educational, religious, medical, community funds and civic institutions. None of its funds shall inure to the benefit of any private individual nor any political entity.

An original gift from the founders in the amount of $40,000.00 was received in 1953 and in the same year grants were awarded totaling $8,962.50. Since that modest beginning, the Foundation's Unrestricted Net Assets have increased through gifts, legacies, and capital improvement to that total shown on the Statements of Assets, Liabilities and Net Assets included in this report. Likewise, the total grants awarded have increased from the above figure to that figure included herein for the year reported.

As of December 31, 2020, the annual donations made by the Foundation since its inception reached the total of $17,124,983.92.

Changes in the laws governing foundations as well as economic and sociological changes alter, from time to time, the Foundation's pattern of giving. However, the basic principles and desires of the founders are being adhered to by the officers and trustees. The Trustees feel that they, by their close relationship with Robert E. and Evelyn McKee and with knowledge of their desires, have effectively helped in reaching the charitable goals of the Founders.

The Cancer Foundation OF NORTHEAST GEORGIA

The Cancer Foundation (TCF) is a nonprofit organization whose mission is to help alleviate the financial burden of cancer for eligible patients. Founded by a group of oncologists serving northeast Georgia, TCF launched our Financial Assistance Program in 2009 to serve the growing number of cancer patients in need of financial assistance due to the increasingly high cost of cancer treatment.

The Cancer Foundation OF NORTHEAST GEORGIA

Now in our twelfth year of service, TCF's focus remains this one targeted program to address a cancer patient's immediate financial crisis upon diagnosis and during treatment. The Cancer Foundation provides financial assistance for basic life needs such as rent and mortgage payments, utility payments, transportation costs and medications. To date, TCF has provided over $2.5 million dollars in financial assistance to more than 3,800 cancer patients in our 25-county service area. By channeling the generosity of our community, we have never turned away an eligible patient due to lack of funds.

In 2020, a generous grant from the Robert E. and Evelyn McKee Foundation made it possible for seven cancer patients to receive financial assistance through The Cancer Foundation. The grant provided four utilities payments, seven rent/mortgage payments, and one fuel card. With this support, these patients were able to focus on their treatment and healing.

"I just wanted to thank you for the transportation assistance my dad received. We just lost my mom a few months ago to cancer and then he was diagnosed, too. It has been very stressful on him. We appreciate your kindness!"

LAW N' PAWS

About Us

Law N' Paws is a unique rescue group that was established in 2017 by El Paso Police Detective, Vanessa Acosta. We are a 501c(3) non-profit group and have rescued over 250 victims of animal cruelty and neglect, so far. Law N' Paws evolved when Detective Acosta began investigating animal cruelty and neglect cases. She soon realized the need to take it a step further, going above and beyond to help animal victims on her own time. She began to seek out medical care for the rescue animals in need, paying out of her own pocket. After the first rescue pup, Raven, was successfully rehabilitated and placed in a safe forever home, Law N' Paws was born. Law N' Paws continues to provide the much-needed medical care after being made aware of animal abuse, cruelty and neglect cases. But it doesn't stop there. We also ensure that each of our rescues are spayed, neutered, provided vaccinations and are microchipped. But we could not do this without community support. From monetary donations to much needed supplies, your donations allow us to continue our mission of rehabilitation and love.

Mission Statement

Our mission is to help abused and neglected animals and give them a second chance at finding a forever home.

Whether an animal has been rescued from a cruelty situation or is a stray that has been abandoned, our goal is to give them the necessary care and rehabilitation.

Once our rescues have been rehabilitated, they are ready to find a forever home.

Odessa and Christy had foreign body objects inside their intestines from rocks, plastics and screws, eating anything to try and survive. Odessa and Christy were boarded in veterinary clinic for controlled feeding. Both have recovered and are seeking their foreverhome.

Olivia was found dumped in the desert with a bear trap on her right paw. Her paw was severely swollen and infected. She also had rocks inside her intestines. Olivia has since been fully rehabilitated and has been adopted.

Shannon miraculously had no breaks but sustained bruising on her paws. Shannon after being treated and recovering from her injuries found her foreverhome.

Remy's previous owner left a chain on his neck for an extended period of time causing an embedded collar. Remy also had wounds on his body that were infected. His wounds were treated for infection by a veterinary clinic. Remy has since recovered and has been adopted.

Lukas was abandoned by his owners and was found with severe mange. He also was suffering from a severe ear infection which was also very painful. Law N' Paws rescued him and is currently being treated at East El Paso Animal Hospital.

The Sheriff's Posse Causes, Inc.

The El Paso County Sheriff's Posse has continued the tradition of making Christmas special for the children of Sunland Park New Mexico and the surrounding community every Christmas since the start of the program in the 1960's. The tradition began more than 45 years ago when members of the Sheriff's Posse brought a toy for a boy and a girl to the annual Christmas party to be distributed to local children through the two existing community churches. Over the following years, with the help of monetary donations from not only Possemen, but also El Paso businesses who knew of the Posse's involvement in the community, the Toy Program grew from 30-45 children in the 1960's and 1970's to 75-90 children in the 1980's, to approximately 300-500 children in the 1990's.

Since the late 1990's, the generous support of the Robert E. and Evelyn McKee Foundation has allowed the Christmas Toy Program to grow with the community of Sunland Park. Most recently, approximately 1,000 children, who might otherwise have gone without, received a Christmas toy. Over the years, the El Paso County Sheriffs Posse has joined with the Sunland Park Police Officer's Association and the Sunland Park Elementary School Principals to ensure that we reach those children who are truly in need. These efforts have been recognized by others like Sunland Park Racetrack and Casino, who recognize not only the needs of, but the opportunity to serve the community in which we live.

The Sheriff's Posse, through The Sheriffs Posse Causes, Inc., continues to provide and expand this unique program even further. We greatly appreciate the past support of the Robert E. and Evelyn McKee Foundation, and look forward to their much needed continued support.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with the modified cash basis of accounting as described in Note 2; this includes determining that the modified cash basis of accounting is an acceptable basis for the preparation of the financial statements in the circumstances. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the assets, liabilities, and net assets of Robert E. and Evelyn McKee Foundation as of December 31, 2020 and 2019, and its support, revenue, and expenses and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with the modified cash basis of accounting described in Note 2.

Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note 2 of the financial statements, which describes the basis of accounting. The financial statements are prepared on the modified cash basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

ROBERT E. AND EVELYN MCKEE FOUNDATION

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2020 and 2019

1. ORGANIZATION

The Robert E. and Evelyn McKee Foundation (the Foundation) was chartered in the State of Texas as a qualified private non-profit, charitable foundation in 1952. The purpose of the Foundation is to use its funds exclusively within the United States for the benefit of charitable, educational, religious, medical, community and civic institutions.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation - The financial statements of the Foundation have been prepared on the modified cash basis of accounting. This basis of accounting is a basis other than generally accepted accounting principles. Revenues are recognized when received rather than when earned. Expenses are recognized when cash is disbursed rather than when the expense or obligation is incurred. Property and equipment that meet the capitalization threshold are capitalized and depreciated over their estimated useful life.

Cash and Cash Equivalents - We consider all cash and highly liquid financial instruments with original maturities of three months or less, which are neither held for nor restricted by donors for long-term purposes, to be cash and cash equivalents. Cash and highly liquid financial instruments restricted for long-term purposes are excluded from this definition.

Investments - We record investment purchases at cost, or if donated, at fair value on the date of donation. Thereafter, investments are reported at their fair values in the statements of financial position. Realized and unrealized gains and losses and income less external and direct internal investment expenses are included in the statements of support, revenue and expenses.

Income Producing Properties - Income producing properties consist of land and buildings, which are presented in the financial statements at cost. The buildings became fully depreciated at December 31, 1993, based on an estimated useful life of 20 years.

Fixed Assets - We record property and equipment additions over $500 at cost, or if donated, at fair value on the date of donation. Depreciation and amortization are computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets ranging from 5 to 20 years. When assets are sold or otherwise disposed of, the cost and related depreciation or amortization are removed from the accounts, and any resulting gain or loss is included in the statement of support, revenue and expenses. Costs of maintenance and repairs that do not improve or extend the useful lives of the respective assets are expensed currently.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

We review the carrying values of property and equipment for impairment whenever events or circumstances indicate that the carrying value of an asset may not be recoverable from the estimated future cash flows expected to result from its use and eventual disposition. When considered impaired, an impairment loss is recognized to the extent carrying value exceeds the fair value of the asset. There were no indicators of asset impairment during the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019.

Net Assets - Net assets, revenues, gains, and losses are classified based on the existence or absence of donor or grantor imposed restrictions. Accordingly, net assets and changes therein are classified and reported as follows:

Net Assets Without Donor Restrictions - Net assets available for use in general operations and not subject to donor (or certain grantor) restrictions.

Net Assets With Donor Restrictions - Net assets subject to donor imposed restrictions. Some donor-imposed restrictions are temporary in nature, such as those that will be met by the passage of time or other events specified by the donor. Other donor-imposed restrictions are perpetual in nature, where the donor stipulates that resources be maintained in perpetuity. Donor-imposed restrictions are released when a restriction expires, that is, when the stipulated time has elapsed, when the stipulated purpose for which the resource was restricted has been fulfilled, or both.

Revenue Recognition - Revenue is recognized when earned. Contributions are recognized when cash, securities or other assets, are received.

The main sources of revenue for the Foundation are investment income and rental income.

Functional Allocation of Expenses - The costs of program and supporting services activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of support, revenue and expenses. The statements of functional expenses present the natural classification detail of expenses by function. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services benefitted.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Income Taxes - The Foundation is a qualified organization exempt from federal income taxes pursuant to Code Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") as a private foundation. The Code does impose an excise tax of 2 percent (reduced to 1 percent if certain requirements are met) on net investment income of private foundations. Federal excise taxes reported in the Statement of Support, Revenue, and Expenses represent cash payments made during the year and do not necessarily reflect actual excise taxes due on current year investment income. The Foundation incurred excise taxes of $4,908 and $3,601 in 2020 and 2019, respectively. The Foundation's Forms 990-PF, Return of Private Foundation, for the years ending 2017, 2018 and 2019 are subject to examination by the IRS, generally for three years after they were filed.

The Foundation believes that it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements.

Use of Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with modified cash basis requires us to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates, and those differences could be material.

Financial Instruments and Credit Risk - We manage deposit concentration risk by placing cash, money market accounts, and certificates of deposit with financial institutions believed by us to be creditworthy. At times, amounts on deposit may exceed insured limits or include uninsured investments in money market mutual funds. To date, we have not experienced losses in any of these accounts. Investments are made by us. Although the fair values of investments are subject to fluctuation on a year-to-year basis, we and the investment committee believe that the investment policies and guidelines are prudent for the long-term welfare of the organizations.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2020 and 2019

3. LIQUIDITY AND AVAILABILITY

Financial assets available for general expenditure, that is without donor or other restrictions limiting their use, within one year of the balance sheet date, comprise of the following:

	2020	2019
Cash	$ 143,215	$ 83,432
Investments	8,195,187	9,228,828
	$ 8,338,402	$ 9,312,260

The investments are without donor restriction and are available for general expenditure.

We have a goal to maintain financial assets, which consist of cash and investments, on hand to meet the approved charitable disbursements for the following year of approximately $294,325.

4. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS AND DISCLOSURES

We report certain assets at fair value in the financial statements. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction in the principal, or most advantageous, market at the measurement date under current market conditions regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using another valuation technique. Inputs used to determine fair value refer broadly to the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability, including assumptions about risk. Inputs may be observable or unobservable. Observable inputs are inputs that reflect the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability based on market data obtained from sources independent of the reporting entity. Unobservable inputs are inputs that reflect the reporting entity's own assumptions about the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability based on the best information available. A three-tier hierarchy categorizes the inputs as follows:

Level 1 - Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that we can access at the measurement date.

Level 2 - Inputs other than quoted priced included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly. These include quoted prices for similar assets in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar assets in markets that are not active, inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset and market-corroborated inputs.

Level 3 - Unobservable inputs for the asset. In these situations, we develop inputs using the best information available in the circumstances.
